

Notes for Chapter Contributors

1. There is no charge for publishing with NOVA. The only possible exceptions are fees for English editing (when required) and color figures (if any). For questions, please contact nova.main@novapublishers.com.
2. Open Access – Nova offers various Open Access options to its authors. For more information, please visit the Open Access tab under “About Nova” at the footer of www.novapublishers.com.
3. A free copy of the e-book version is sent to the first-listed contributor of each chapter when the book becomes available. If your final chapter is over fifty (50) printed book pages, we will provide the first-listed contributor with a printed copy as well as an eBook in appreciation of your valuable contribution. International shipping charges will apply. Additionally, Nova offers a special 30% discount on all prepublication orders. You are also welcome to extend this special prepublication discount to your esteemed colleagues and peers. Libraries, institutions and organizations can apply a special 20% discount on all prepublication orders. You will receive the discount code in a separate email from our marketing department once the book is announced on our website.
4. The scientific community is the intended audience of books published by Nova. Coauthors may be invited by you at your discretion and are welcome by Nova.
5. Contributors are encouraged to submit chapters ranging from 5,000 to 35,000 words. Contributors are also invited to submit an Expert Commentary (optional) of 2,000-4,000 words on innovative ideas, developments, directions, challenges, or trends in the field.
6. The choice of theme and approach are at the discretion of the author but acceptance is only upon submission of the draft abstract.
7. Research results (studies) are the primary type of article desired but review articles are also welcome.
8. Revised versions of an earlier work are acceptable provided the revisions constitute at least 50%. In this case, gathering any permissions necessary (such as illustrations) is the responsibility of the author. Such permissions must include digital rights as well as worldwide print rights.

9. Copyright must be transferred to Nova via email along with chapter submission.

10. Personalized chapter offprints are available.

11. MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION SPECIFICATIONS

- The preferred version is Microsoft Word 2013 or Latex. Microsoft 2010 is also acceptable. Please indicate which version of MS Word was used at the time of submission. Please avoid sending the chapters in any version earlier than 2010 as this may result in publication delays, quality issues and/or preparation fees.
- If you are using Latex, Nova requests the use of the Nova macro. This is ARTICLE.STY set at 5.5 inches (13.97 cm) and letter size (not A4 paper). Please try to use outside justified page headers. If you would like to add any packages to this macro beyond those already specified, it is mandatory that the corresponding .sty files be submitted with the chapter. Nova currently uses the Windows Operating System.
- Please see Sample Chapter under For our Authors and Editors.

12. REFERENCES: Our recommended style is Chicago Manual. If you prefer to use a different style, please verify with us before preparing your chapter. References may be cited in the text by the author and date of publication in parenthesis or by using numbers in brackets. Please see Sample References under For our Authors and Editors.

13. IMPORTANT: Please list the title of the chapter along with all the authors' affiliations. Do not footnote the affiliations nor list them at the end of the chapter.

14. IMPORTANT: Please begin the chapter with a descriptive abstract (100-400 words) summarizing the content of the article and indicate the abstract with the heading ABSTRACT. Other essential headings include: INTRODUCTION, CONCLUSION (not Conclusions, Discussion or Concluding Remarks); REFERENCES and any other headings deemed necessary within the chapter to reflect the important subsections or divisions.

15. All diagrams, photographs, illustrations and charts (not tables) are to be referred to in the text as Figures and should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals. These figures must be supplied as separate electronic files named in the format in which they were created and must be one of the following types: tiff, bitmap, jpeg, gif, ppt, psd, png or eps. The required resolution of these figures must be 350-750 dpi. The higher the resolution, the clearer the printed image.

The Figures may also be placed in the manuscript for indicating position. If scanned images are used, please retain the original hard copy of the figure for possible transmission to Nova Science Publishers. If previously published figures are used, written permission from the copyright holder must be obtained and submitted along with the text indicating copyright holder's citation instructions.

PLEASE NOTE: Manuscripts submitted without proper permissions for all previously published figures and tables are incomplete submissions and will not be published. If there are any figures which the publisher is unable to utilize, the submission is also considered to be incomplete.

16. You may use any font size ranging from 10 to 12 point depending on what's most convenient for you. Don't be concerned about line spacing. We will be performing electronic page layout.
17. Please try to keep vertical (portrait) tables a maximum of 5.5 inches wide. If width is a problem, use the landscape layout with section breaks on both sides if MS Word is being used.
18. Please do not follow the end of sentences with two spaces but instead with only a single space.
19. If you have variations from the title which you would like to see as the Running Heads, please let us know.
20. Please refer to the manuscript as "this chapter" within the text.
21. If you wish us to review the English for style, please clearly mark that at the beginning of the article.
22. Either American or British spelling is acceptable. International, American and British punctuation are all acceptable.

23. For any explanatory notes, please use Footnotes.
24. SUBMISSION OF YOUR MANUSCRIPT: The entire article can be sent via email to Nova.Main@novapublishers.com or by regular mail. If the file(s) for the chapter exceed 10MB in size, please use DropBox or WeTransfer. PDF files are welcome but must be accompanied by the original tex or Microsoft word files. Receipt will be acknowledged promptly. If you don't receive an email acknowledgment, it is probably lost in cyberspace.
25. PAGE PROOFS: Proofs are sent to the Author to check that the manuscript has been properly set in type and allow him/her to correct any typographical errors. Contributor alterations at the page proof stage are permitted for up to two percent (2%) of the manuscript volume. Any additional changes at the page proofs stage will be subject to additional fees to be paid by the author. The Author's approval for printing is considered final if he or she doesn't respond to Nova within ten (10) days after receiving a page proofs letter.
26. Tracking information will be available on your book page at <http://www.novapublishers.com> and will be updated regularly.

If any questions remain, please contact us.

We look forward to working together.

Sincerely yours,

Nadya Gotsiridze-Columbus
